

NEWS OF THE DAY.

"To show the very age and body of the Times."

Mr. Robert J. Walker has written a letter advocating the acquisition of the island of St. Thomas by our Government.

The Governor's annual message, sent to the Maryland Legislature yesterday, is a lucid exhibit of the condition of the State.

Porto Rico was visited by an earthquake again on the 29th of December. The shocks were slight and caused little alarm among the inhabitants.

Senator Guthrie, of Kentucky, who has been unable, from sickness, to attend in the Senate for some time past, is now expected, will shortly resume his seat in that body.

L. C. Hopkins & Co., dry goods dealers in Cincinnati, failed yesterday. The liabilities of the firm are set down at one million of dollars, principally to Eastern houses.

It is reported that the rebellion in Yucatan was set on foot by Santa Anna, who furnished Col. Vilafana with money and men. It is also reported that he endeavored to interest several French officers in the scheme, but they refused to enter into it.

Official reports from Crete received by the Greek Legation at Washington, report that a battle was fought between the Cretans and the Turks on the 25th and 26th of November, in which the Turks were defeated and obliged to retire, with severe loss.

A cable dispatch, received in New York says that La Liberté of December 30th says: "The Austrian Government has received a dispatch from the Consul General in Alexandria, informing it of the suspension of the English expedition in consequence of the release by King Theodore of the white British captives he held."

Gov. Flanders, of Louisiana, having resigned his gubernatorial office, Gen. Hancock has appointed Mr. Joshua Baker to fill the vacancy thus created. Gen. Hancock has also directed Gen. Buchanan to take command of the 3rd District of Louisiana, and to act as Assistant Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau, vice Gen. Mower, relieved of those duties.

The heaviest fog lay on the water in New York harbor yesterday morning, that was ever known. It seriously interfered with the shipping. The ferry boats ran with difficulty.

A collision occurred on the East river between a propeller and a schooner, name unknown, by which the latter was sunk and one man drowned. On the Hudson river the tug Octor sunk a lighter, but her crew were rescued.

The steamer Highland Light, Capt. Dungan, left Baltimore yesterday, for Annapolis and Miles River, with a number of passengers on board, and when about one mile north of the Seven Foot Knoll, her steam chimney suddenly collapsed, enveloping all those who were on board or on the lower deck, in a dense cloud of steam. Mr. John Clark, the chief engineer, was slightly scalded, and ten colored persons, four passengers and six belonging to the boat, were more or less scalded, one of whom has since died, and several others are not expected to recover.

A painful sensation was created among the boarders at the Wetmore House, New York, on Thursday morning, by the suicide of a lady, Mrs. J. Priest, who had been employed for a few days past as the cashier of the establishment.

A bottle, partly filled with laudanum, and some opium lying by her side told the story. The lady was from New Orleans, and had but recently come to New York. Several letters were found in her trunk, from which it would appear that she had been for some time separated from her husband, and had come to New York to procure the means of livelihood.

The Executive Committee of the Conservative Party, appointed by the Virginia Conservative State Convention, are in daily receipt of letters and communications from all parts of the State, which represent the business of organization as going on most encouragingly.

The President received the following dispatch from Memphis yesterday: "Memphis is redeemed. Leftwich elected mayor. Peace, order and quiet prevail. Freewhite suffrage vindicated."

Alaska is described as a land where cabbages have no heads, turnips and potatoes no bodies, cauliflowers no sweetness, and fruit trees no fruit.

HUNNICUTT.—This man, the pet of the ultra Radicals, and the idol of the most ignorant of the colored people, before the war, published a paper at Fredericksburg called the Christian Banner, from which the following is an extract:

"We are decidedly opposed to any and all African churches south of Mason and Dixon's line. In the present state of things, and at this particular crisis, we think it exceedingly impolitic in the Southern people to allow such organizations to exist in our midst. The time for such unhallowed assemblies is not yet. Nor is Virginia the place of rendezvous for such dangerously mischievous, ungodly masses of crude mind and matter to congregate, to concoct and execute their nefarious schemes of religious villainies. They are ignorant and superstitious to a proverb. Depravity, ignorance and superstition form a dangerous compound, and such a compound is the black population of Virginia."

THE SOUTHERN PRESS.—The New York Times felicitates itself upon the freedom of the southern press as displayed in its denunciations of the military commanders, citing a quotation from an Alabama paper denouncing Gen. Pope as an "infamous political Radical Swindler," yet it was not suspended. The Times is pleased to say that "General Schofield has been 'spoken of in the same manner by 'numerous Virginia newspapers.' No paragraph in a Virginia newspaper personally offensive to Gen. Schofield has fallen under our eye. The Virginia press as a body would certainly not concur in anything in the line of vituperation towards Gen. Schofield.

Nevertheless, the Times should remember that the military commanders have it in their power to suspend newspapers; and that while they have foreborne to exercise their authority, it is true that a press whose publication may be suspended at any moment by a single man is not free!—Richmond Dispatch.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—The season of receptions and parties will be commenced on Monday next. Several receptions are named for the coming week, including one by the ladies of the White House, and five or six at the residence of members of Congress.

The President and several members of the Cabinet have promised to attend the eighth of January banquet in this city.

The municipal "dead-lock" is getting exciting. Mayor Wallace declines to sign a resolution to pay corporation officers until the school bill is paid. Mr. Surveyor Bliss, who was elected by the radical party, and who is sustaining Mr. Bissell in his action toward the school teachers, yesterday notified the mayor of his purpose to resort to legal proceedings to obtain his money if his draft should be dishonored.

Hon. James Duolap, of Georgetown, formerly Judge of the Circuit Court of the District, will preside at the Democratic banquet to be held at the Metropolitan Hotel on Wednesday night next.

Timothy J. Hurley, proprietor of the distillery above Georgetown, which was seized a few days ago by the revenue officers, was arrested yesterday on a bench warrant for a violation of the revenue laws. Hurley is charged with making no returns since December 21, 1867, but he says the distillery was doing nothing. The revenue officers charge that it has been in operation all the time.

VIRGINIA NEWS.

At Balcony Falls, in Rockbridge, snow is 15 inches deep on a level.

There have been issued in Richmond within the last thirty days, twenty-four warrants in bankruptcy.

Reuben Raynes, formerly of Staunton, died last September, at Sacramento City, California. He had never married, and it is said, left a large estate.

In Lynchburg, on Thursday morning, a difficulty occurred between Mr. Quinn and Mr. Poole, and the latter killed the former by striking him over the head with a four pound weight.

The Winchester News says: "We have heard a rumor to the effect that several wealthy gentlemen are negotiating for a tract of land in the vicinity of Winchester, it being their intention to settle upon it an Irish colony of some fifty or sixty families."

The Farmer and the Planter (agricultural periodicals in Richmond) have been consolidated, with the veteran Charles B. Williams as Editor. This is as it should be. Owing to the impoverished condition of our people, there was not room for two agricultural journals.

The case of Leakey, the Delegate from Brunswick, who was named by a gentleman named Sharp, on Main street, in Richmond, a few days since, was brought up before the Mayor yesterday morning, but owing to the absence of an important witness it was postponed.

W. H. Fitzhugh sold on the 31st ult., to H. W. Edwards, for $4,800, 132 acres, with the buildings thereon, (except a large barn which he reserves) of the 360 acres of his new Boswell Farm in Stafford. Terms, $1,600 cash, $2,400 payable during 1868, and $800 during 1869.

Dr. Ambler, of Fauquier county, has been furnished with one thousand sheep by a citizen of New York, to be grazed on the Doctor's farm for a term of years and then restored to the owner, or the like number accounted for.—The parties in the meantime divide equally between themselves the wool and increase of the flock.

A VILLAIN CAUGHT.—about a week ago a robbery, accompanied with attempt to murder, was perpetrated in Baltimore county, Maryland, under the following circumstances: A white man named John Maulby, and a colored companion, went to a house near the railroad, and finding no one at home but a boy, they knocked him in the head and laid him across the rail track, in order to convey the idea that he had been killed by the passing train. They then proceeded to the house, which they ransacked, but obtained but about $20 for their pains.

Fortunately for the boy, he recovered his consciousness before the train passed, and was able to crawl off and reach his home, where he subsequently related what had been done, and identified Maulby, who had fled. The detectives of Baltimore were immediately informed of the circumstances, and the matter placed in their hands. A close watch was kept upon Maulby's family, who reside in the country, and a day or two ago they packed up their goods, and yesterday left, taking the train to Washington, where they arrived last night.

The Baltimore detective came down in the same car with them, and as soon as they got off the train at the depot, they were met by Maulby, who had been appointed to meet them here. Officer Thompson, of the Metropolitan police, stationed at the depot on duty, was called upon and arrested Maulby and the entire party, and took them to the Seventh precinct station-house where they were detained until 8 o'clock p. m. when they were taken to the train and back to Baltimore.—Washington Express.

THE OLD MEN'S DINNER IN LYNCHBURG.—The Virginian contains a highly interesting account of this dinner, and a biographical sketch of each of the diners. The following is the list:

Bishop Jno. Early, Lindsey, Shoemaker, A. McDaniel, Dr. Wm. Owens, Thos. Ferguson, C. Hardy, G. Percival, A. Williams, Jas. McDonald, Sr., Jas. Fretwell, P. Labby, D. R. Edley, Jas. V. Knight, Judge Daniel, A. Wilson, M. Connell, Sr., W. Gamaway, Maj. J. Garland, John G. Meem. They drank toasts, made speeches, and enjoyed themselves amazingly. Thirteen of the number were Virginians and four Irishmen by birth.

TOTAL ECLIPSE OF THE SUN IN 1868.—At the last meeting of the Royal Society, the president and council had under consideration the means to be employed in making complete observations of the total eclipse of this year. The eclipse will be of the greatest possible duration, affording, therefore, more leisure than usual for such observations as can only be made during the brief interval of the totality. The total phase will be visible in India, but elsewhere only in countries practically unavailable. Recent observations on the spectra of the heavenly bodies render spectroscopic observations of the red protuberances and of the corona a matter of peculiar interest.—London paper.

IMMIGRANTS.—We have had a class of immigrants of late, in the shape of two hundred and fifty thousand Germans and Irish, bringing with them forty millions of dollars, partly in their pockets and partly in their bones and muscle. This is a vital addition to our prosperity, in view of the present disastrous radical policy which is cutting off our resources in the Southern States and piling up our national liabilities and taxation. We hope this class of people will come over here as fast as possible. This is a begonia that will be more welcome than the pugilistic eastwags of Great Britain.—N. Y. Herald.

SOMETHING SIGNIFICANT.—When a radical New England protectionist and manufacturer like Senator Sprague, of Rhode Island, comes out flustered against the cotton tax, against contraction of the currency, and against other ruinous measures which the radical republicans support of his father-in-law, Mr. Chase, favor, we may be sure the country has been brought to a bad condition. He would be the last man to cry out if the country was not suffering terribly and on the road to great financial trouble.—N. Y. Herald.

GOVERNORSHIP OF VIRGINIA.—We learn that the matter as to whether Governor Peirpoint shall hold over until a State government is organized is under discussion at military headquarters. The fact that the Constitution of the State fixes the term of service of the Governor, and the uncertainty as to when a State government, under the action of the convention, will be organized, renders it probable that Peirpoint will be removed and a Governor appointed by the military.—Rich. En.

A COMMITTEE, says John Phoenix waited on Joe Bowers when he was a candidate for the Legislature in California, and wanted him to state what his politics were. "Gentlemen," said Joseph, "I have none." "What! Mr. Bowers, no politics?" "No, gentlemen, not a d—d politics!" Joseph was not elected.

Reforms Recommended.

INDIANAPOLIS, January 2.—A large meeting of prominent gentlemen of this city and State, representing both political parties, was held this afternoon at the Chamber of Commerce.

It was resolved to ask of Congress "a comprehensive policy plainly marked out, which shall embody the following features: Cessation of contraction, payment of the public debt according to the letter and spirit of the law, postponement of payment till the present financial distress is relieved, a change of the form of the debt to satisfy the public clamor about equal taxation, no more hoarding of gold in the Treasury, the issue of long-term bonds, and a repeal of the cotton tax; and that the reviving officers be deprived of the power of compromising with persons who violate the revenue laws."

Va. "Reconstruction" Convention. RICHMOND, VA., Jan. 3.—In the convention to-day resolutions were offered urging the continuance of the Freedmen's Bureau in the State, and deprecating its withdrawal as a calamity, and requesting Gen. Howard to continue it under such agents as may best suit the purpose. After a long debate it was adopted—yeas 52, nays 14.

POWERS, of Kansas, addressed the meeting at the African church to-night. He advised the convention to confer the right of suffrage on all males over twenty-one years of age, and to secure it to them forever.

LOUDOUN COUNTY ITEMS.—January term of the county court of Loudoun county, will commence 13th day of the present month.

Francis Elgin, an estimable and highly respected citizen of this county, died at his residence on Tuesday evening last.

Mr. John Hancock, an aged and worthy citizen of this county, died at his residence on Saturday last. He leaves a large estate.—Leesbury Washingtonian.

THE INDIAN DELEGATIONS.—It is understood that a "Society of Friends," interested in the Indian tribes, intend to erect a loom in one of the rooms of the Indian Bureau, with a view to instructing the several delegations of Indians who are expected to visit this city this winter in the practical working of that invaluable machine. Several Indian squaws, who are already familiar with it, will be present to explain it to the chiefs.—Washington Express.

Mr. James Collins, a hater by trade, fell into a ditch whilst walking near Richmond, on Wednesday evening last, and was found afterwards, dead by suffocation.

Miscellaneous Paragraphs. On Christmas eve, the St. George's Society of Toronto distributed 5,000 pounds of meat, 900 large loaves of bread, four chests of tea, and a large quantity of other food to the poor of that city.

An editor appearing among the delegates to the late Manufacturers' Convention at Cleveland, when called upon to give the nature of his employment, said he "manufactured public opinion." He was a limited.

Jules Janin, it is said, is the slave of his old housekeeper, who prohibits his going out on certain days, keeps his bank book, and in all his private affairs treats him like a small and not very bright child.

The Crown Prince of Holland is to marry the Princess Frederika, eldest daughter of the ex-King of Hanover, and the young lady is to have a dowry of two million of dollars, if her father can get Prussia to settle his little bill.

Two human bodies have remained in the Museum of the Bellevue Medical College, New York, for over a year, in perfect preservation, kept so by the injection of a fluid which is promised to cause a revolution in the art of embalming.

Prominent among the measures to be submitted to the Missouri Legislature in January is a bill to regulate "the social evil," by licensing respectable houses, and it is said that a large sum is being made up by the "lancey" of St. Louis, to lobby the bill through to help the movement.

In one of the churches of Vienna a very successful collection in favor of the Pope has just been made. The Emperor and Empress of Austria gave $5,000; the Archduchess Sophia mother of the Emperor, 5,000; the Archduke Charles and the Archduchess Nudizias, 2,500; the Duke and Duchess de Modena, 10,000; the infant Alphonse and the infant Marie, 2,500.

Napoleon's chief of Paris has an eye to politics as well as to beauty and convenience. When the Empress said to him, looking at one of his long, straight boulevards, just opened, "Why do you make that boulevard so long and straight?" "Madame," replied the prefect, "I made it very long and very straight because the generals of the artillery, whom I consulted on the subject, assured me that it was impossible to teach cannon balls to turn round the first corner to the left."
